

DRB-F50CM

A versatile, dual-function rigging bar for video walls that enables both overhead hanging and ground-stacking configurations. Perfectly suited for any installation requiring the flexibility to either fly a video wall or build it from the ground up.

- Allows vertical or horizontal hanging of video panels for flexible setup options.
- Works seamlessly with all CHAUVET Professional F-series and VIVID4 video panels.
- Includes M20 eyebolts and supports standard 1/2-inch and 5/8-inch shackles.
- Integrated magnetic hardware ensures perfect alignment when connecting multiple rig bars.
- Combines with the RB-F100CM rigging bar for expanded system design possibilities.
- Offers a 50 cm rigging point for stable and secure video panel suspension.
